DECLARATION OF CLAIRE HOYUM

1. My name is Claire Hoyum.
2. I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth in this Declaration, am over the age of eighteen (18) years, and am competent to testify to the matters set forth herein.
3. I am employed by the St. Paul Companies ("St. Paul"), and my job responsibilities include being familiar with St. Paul's policies and practices concerning the deletion and retention of e-mails. This declaration addresses applicable corporate policies and practices up through October 2002.
4. E-mail messages in a St. Paul employee's Inbox are retained for 30 days beyond the date of their receipt, if they have been opened. If still unopened after 30 days, a message remains in the Inbox until it is opened, and then is deleted in the next automated Inbox cleanup. The automated cleanup runs nightly against employee mailboxes.
5. A St. Paul employee may extend the retention of messages in the Inbox by moving them to folders. Messages moved from an employee's Inbox to a folder are retained until the employee actively deletes them.

6. Messages a St. Paul employee sends and retains in the Sent folder are similarly retained until the employee actively deletes them.

7. St. Paul employees' mail databases are backed up nightly, and backups are normally retained for 5 weeks (35 days). Within this 35-day rotation, each night the oldest existing backup tapes are reused to create the current night's backups.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury on this 18th day of August, 2003, that the foregoing is true and correct.
